

Arch Coal Foundation Awards Scholarships to 16 High School Graduates

May 16, 2013 4:15 PM ET

ST. LOUIS, May 16, 2013 -- The Arch Coal Foundation today announced that 16 recent high school graduates have been chosen as 2013 Arch Coal Scholars.

The Arch Coal Scholars program honors outstanding scholastic achievement by the children of the employees of Arch Coal and its subsidiaries. Each of this year's scholars will receive a $2,000 annual scholarship to an accredited college or university for up to four years.

"We are honored to recognize this year's class of Arch Coal Scholars," said John W. Eaves, Arch Coal president and chief executive officer. The scholars program is in its 24th year. "We congratulate this impressive group of students on their accomplishments, and we look forward to their continued success."

The 2013 Arch Coal Scholars are:

Jade Astin	Son of Stephen and Tami Astin	Somerset, Colo.
Kendra Ball	Daughter of Bradley and Kimi Ball	Sharples, W. Va.
Payton Crawford	Daughter of Travis and Marcie Crawford	Wright, Wyo.
Emma Crim	Daughter of Steven and Kristina Crim	Wright, Wyo.
Alexis Johnson	Daughter of Christopher and Kim Johnson	Somerset, Colo.
Colten Johnson	Son of Gordon and Angela Johnson	Salina, Utah
Zachary Joseph	Son of Michael and Jackie Joseph	Appalachia, Va.

Rory Williams	Daughter of Roy and Kelly Williams	Phillippi, W. Va.
Courtney Worthington	Daughter of Gregory and Toriann Worthington	Salina, Utah
Lauren Young	Daughter of William and Lydia Young	Cowen, W. Va.

Arch Coal Scholars are selected on the basis of academic record, potential to succeed, leadership and participation in school and community activities. Also included in the application are a statement of education and career goals, a work history and an outside appraisal.

This year's top-rated Arch Coal Scholar, Zachary Joseph, was named the 2013 Kendra Bradley Washburn Memorial Scholarship recipient. Zachary graduated from Letcher County Central High School in Whitesburg, Ky. He was a 2012 Kentucky Governor's Scholar and received a University of Kentucky Presidential Scholarship. He was an all-district and an all-region soccer player, a state finalist in speech competition and a member of the school's regional champion quick-recall team. The Washburn Memorial Scholarship is named for the late daughter of a former Arch Coal director and is given each year to the Arch Coal Scholar that received the judges' highest ranking.

"Arch Coal and the Arch Coal Foundation have a longstanding commitment to education, ranging from honoring outstanding teachers to supporting innovative classroom projects and institutions of higher learning," Eaves said. "The Arch Coal Scholars program is an important investment in our employees and in the future of tomorrow's leaders."

Scholarship America, the country's largest private sector scholarship and educational support organization, administers all aspects of the scholarship competition, including the independent selection process.

Since the Arch Coal Scholars program began in 1989, the program has provided four-year scholarships to more than 250 new high school graduates. The Arch Coal Foundation also supports educational excellence through its annual Arch Coal Teacher Achievement Awards in West Virginia, Wyoming and Utah, and through a teaching grants program in Delta County, Colo.
